Squirrel Hill and its Jewish community are unusual on the American scene. In contrast to most other 1920s-era Jewish neighborhoods around the country, it remains heavily Jewish and the center of Pittsburgh Jewish life. The public programs in this series address the history of the Pittsburgh Jewish community, the history of Squirrel Hill in particular, larger patterns in Pittsburgh's urban history, and key themes in American Jewish and urban history. Examining the history of Squirrel Hill offers an opportunity for Pittsburgh's Jewish community to think about the current status of the community, the neighborhood, and the city, and to think about the future.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2012, 6PM
When the Jews Met the Squirrels: Origins and Overview
Lecture by Barbara Burstin
(University of Pittsburgh/CMU)
Location: Jewish Community Center, Squirrel Hill

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2012, 6PM
Putting Pittsburgh on the Map of American Jewish Urban History
Lecture by Deborah Dash Moore
(University of Michigan)
Location: Jewish Community Center, Squirrel Hill

SUNDAY DECEMBER 2, 2012, 10AM-1PM
Pittsburgh Jewish History Interactive Workshop at the Archives
Susan Melnick (Rauh Jewish Archives) and David Grinnell
(Archives Service Center, University of Pittsburgh Library)
Location: Heinz History Center, Strip District
Presentations from the archives and interactive workshops on researching local history; share memories and material from Squirrel Hill’s past; and hear Pitt students reporting on their research on Jewish Pittsburgh.

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 6, 2013, 7PM
“It’s All Very Pretty but a Person Cannot Cry There”:
Jewish Anxieties over Suburbanization, 1945-1965
Lecture by Rachel Kranson
(University of Pittsburgh)
Location: Jewish Community Center, Squirrel Hill

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2013, 7PM
Jews, Race, and the Twentieth-Century American City
Lecture by Thomas Sugrue
(University of Pennsylvania)
Location: August Wilson Center, Downtown

SUNDAY APRIL 14, 2013, 10AM
Squirrel Hill and Jewish Pittsburgh by the Numbers
Lecture and Workshop by Christopher Briem
(University of Pittsburgh) and Joshua Donner
(Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh)
Location: 1500 Posvar Hall, Pitt Campus, on Schenley Plaza
Join us for bagels and coffee as two local experts dig into the data on the Jewish community and Pittsburgh neighborhood trends.

SUNDAY, MAY 19, 2013
A Walking Tour of Squirrel Hill
Details TBA

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 2013, 7PM
Past, Present, Future: Squirrel Hill and Pittsburgh's Jewish Community
Roundtable Discussion with Jeffrey Finkelstein (Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh); Brian Schreiber (Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh); Barbara Burstin and Rachel Kranston
Moderated by Adam Shear
(University of Pittsburgh)
Location: Jewish Community Center

Registration and Admissions
All events are free and open to the public. For the event on December 2, pre-registration is required. For all other events, pre-registration is requested, but not required. To pre-register for an event, e-mail: sqhill@pitt.edu

Funding and Support
This program is made possible by the Legacy Heritage Jewish Studies Project, directed by the Association for Jewish Studies (AJS). Support for the Legacy Heritage Jewish Studies Project is generously provided by the Legacy Heritage Fund Limited. Other major funding and support has been provided by Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh; Giant Eagle Foundation Endowment for Community Outreach in the Jewish Studies Program; the Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh; and the Rauh Jewish Archives at the Senator John Heinz History Center. Community partners include the Agency for Jewish Learning, the Squirrel Hill Historical Society, and the National Council of Jewish Women–Pittsburgh Section. If your community organization is interested in becoming a partner and helping us to publicize these events, please contact Adam Shear.

For more information
E-mail sqhill@pitt.edu or contact the Project Director: Adam Shear, Director of the Jewish Studies Program, ashear@pitt.edu

Watch for updates and more details about each program:
Jewish Studies Program Website: http://www.jewishstudies.pitt.edu